So my huge 4 x 8 foot painting of the World Trade Center under construction titled "Twenty-Seven Cranes" - Bringing the WTC back to Life is FINALLY finished! Here's a thread about it on a skyscraper.com forum and a YouTube video (below) showing its development.

This is the artistic process used to create a 4 x 8 foot cityscape oil painting meant to capture a significant piece of America's history for posterity. It depicts the enormity of the rebuilding effort at the World Trade Center Site.

"Twenty-Seven Cranes" - Bringing the WTC back to Life"

(New York City)

(48"x 96" - Oil on Canvas)

For anyone wondering, this extra-large painting is listed in the mid-30s, with the desire for it to be purchased by a company, museum, or anyone willing to commit to showing it in a public place. Additionally a third of the profit for this one will go to a great cause ...the FDNY Foundation.

TRAVELS:

Didn't get a lot of travel in this year, however I did add a great trip to Baltimore and D.C. this Fall. I'll be working on a harbor scene of Baltimore and should have it complete in the coming months. For those who have never been, or haven't been in a while I highly recommend visiting ...easily one of the most underrated cities in America.

I'll return to D.C. some spring and capture the Nation's Capital during the famous cherry blossom as well as hopefully add another trip abroad early 2013 to South America, Morocco and Portugal, or Australia.

RECENT SALES:

"Place Jacques-Cartier" \(Montreal, Quebec\), "Helsinki kotona Talvinen" Helsinki, Finland and finally "Flatiron Building - New York, New York" which was only listed for a week before a collector snapped it up!

AUCTION:

I completed an 18" x 18" piece title 'Skull with Cigar and Whiskey' in just 8 hours for the charity art auction ArtCon. It was a modern twist on a Van Gogh's satirical 'Skull with cigarette' It sold for the highest amount they had ever had in their first round (before social lubrication ;) with over a dozen bids on it in the 8 years they'd been running the charity. Boom!

UPCOMING EVENT:

Vino 100 – Artist of the Month(s) 29 Nov – 24 Jan

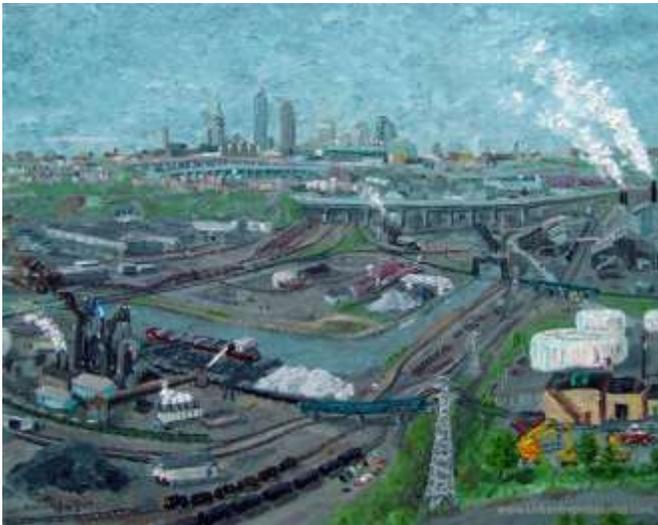

Hey wine lovers about a dozen of my works will be up at Vino 100 over the holidays. Opening reception THIS THURSDAY (the 29th) from 6-8 pm where they'll have all glasses of wine are 50% Off until 7pm.

* My work will be up at Vino 100 til Jan 24th

COMPLETIONS: (click on thumbnails to see larger versions):

Due to spending over 300 hours on the large WTC piece I've completed only two other paintings this year. They are:

"Blue Oxidation"

(Blast Furnaces and Steel Mills still proudly producing on the banks of Cleveland, Ohio's Cuyahoga River)
(16"x 20" - Oil on Canvas)

"Skull with Cigar and Whiskey"

(A modified twist on Van Gogh's satirical
'Skull with cigarette' for ArtCon charity auction)
(18"x 18" - Oil on Canvas)

Other recent completions were included in Vol. 7
